GILLES BOURGEOIS IS APPOINTED
DIRECTOR OF EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

March 31, 1998 — The Office of the Vice-Rector, Institutional Relations and Secretary-General, is pleased to announce the appointment of Gilles Bourgeois to the post of Director, Employee Relations, effective March 23, 1998 to December 31, 2001. His main priority will be to establish an integrated employee/labour relations unit within the University, reporting to the Executive Director, Human Resources and Employee Relations.

Mr. Bourgeois has negotiated more than 100 collective agreements for both labour and management in a variety of industries and corporations. He comes to Concordia with 20 years of experience in the field, most recently as a private consultant in Kingston, Ont., but also including a period as director of human resources at the Kingston-area Frontenac County Board of Education (1991-1996), as manager and then director of labour relations at Canada Post (1986-1991), and as negotiator with the Alberta Union of Provincial Employees (1979-1986) and the Nova Scotia Government Employees Union (1977-1979).

Bourgeois has a BA in Industrial Relations from McGill University (1974) and an MSc in public policy from the École d'administration publique Université du Québec (1978). He is also a graduate of Loyola College High School (1969).

We welcome Mr. Bourgeois to Concordia and wish him every success in his new duties.
